

Current Opportunities

$500 Referral or Sign-on Bonus!

Please submit resumes for consideration to jjacobson@leadersfortoday.com

Interim Positions:

Interim Director of Labor & Delivery Clinical Services – Location: South-West

A 400-bed acute care for profit community hospital, part of a large health care system well known for its outstanding nursing care and patient-centered facilities seeks an Interim Director of Labor & Delivery Clinical Services. This hospital in the South-West is an accredited SCPC Chest Pain Center, Certified Primary Stroke Center, Designated Medicare Value-Based Cardiac and Orthopedic Care Center, Surgical Center of the Brain and Stroke Network. BSN required. Current State RN License. BLS required. A minimum of five years' experience in discipline or specialty, demonstrated leadership ability, financial management, strong interpersonal and communications skills, excellent customer service skills and Lean or Studer experience (preferred). Computer skills required (word, power point and excel). Experienced Interim with seasoned leadership experience in L&D and able to bring positive changes and influence. Must be willing to scrub in and assist on the unit floor on occasional basis. This is a lucrative opportunity and could be several months in duration.

Interim Director of Medical Records/HIM – Location: New York

Assures that the activities of the Medical Records Departments are efficient, effective, and meet the needs of the clinical, physician, and Fiscal departments, state licensure, and JCAHO standards. Responsible for Coding, Transcription, and Medical Records. Managing Coding, transcription and medical records, need help with openings in Coding, In process with install of electronic systems for EMR and scanning/archiving, taking a paper system electronic

Interim Director, Emergency Services – Location: Connecticut

An opportunity for an Interim Director of Emergency Services at a prestigious teaching hospital in Connecticut. Shares responsibility with the Physician Director of Emergency Services for the administration of patient care and management of the patient care team in the Emergency Department. The Director will have graduated from an accredited school of nursing. Masters Degree required.

Interim VP of Medical Affairs – Location: New Jersey

Is the Chief Medical Officer for our client, providing oversight or all physician activities in the organization. He/she is the link between the Organized Independent Medical Staff and the Hospital Administration. In addition all employed and contracted physicians ultimately report to the VPMA. The VPMA is also one of the key executives responsible for maintaining clinical quality in the organization. American Board of Medical Specialists-Certified Physician with MD or DO degree, Licensed to practice medicine in New Jersey; at least 3 years of physician/hospital management experience required; advance management degree (MMM or MBA) preferred.

Interim Director of Emergency Department – Location: Pennsylvania

Confidential search. Please email jjacobson@leadersfortoday.com for further information.

Interim Director of Cardiac Cath Lab Services – Location: New Jersey

Develops overall Cardiovascular Service Quality Improvement/Performance Improvement structure inclusive of comprehensive reports/report cards for each service component. Develops in collaboration with Senior Vice President, Operations charters necessary to implement Cardiovascular Service Line structure inclusive of advisory Committee and all sub committees. Serves as staff to committees. Bachelor's Degree, Master's Preferred.

Interim Executive Director of Accreditation & Standards – Location: Massachusetts

Our client, hospital system in MA, has immediate opportunity for an Interim Executive Director of Accreditation and Standards. Under direction of the Vice President & Chief Quality Officer, perform a wide variety of duties in leading and managing all aspects of the accreditation process including CMS accreditation readiness and compliance across SHG and including DPH, OSHA and other related, regulatory requirements. Responsible for providing communication and education to all involved organizational personnel about accreditation requirements, implications, and changes. Provide strategic and tactical guidance to SHG and SHG leadership, the SHG Regulatory Readiness Committee and other involved parties on accreditation readiness through consultation, facilitation and project management. Master's degree in a professional field is required. Experience with managing and supporting organizational accreditation (Joint Commission and/or DNV, and CMS) required.

~~~~~
Permanent Positions:

Please email jjacobson@leadersfortoday.com for further information on any of the following positions.

Perioperative Services Manager – Location: New York
~~~~~

Director of Case Management – Location: Massachusetts
~~~~~

Director of ICU – Location: New Jersey
~~~~~

Director of Laboratory – Location: Massachusetts
~~~~~

Director of OB/GYN – Location: Massachusetts
~~~~~

Director of Perioperative Services – Location: Vermont
~~~~~

Senior Project Manager, Quality Charge Capture – Location: Massachusetts
~~~~~

Chief Philanthropy Officer – Location: Massachusetts
~~~~~

Perioperative Clinical Coordinator – Location: Massachusetts
~~~~~

Manager of PACU – Location: Massachusetts
~~~~~

Manager of CCU/Medical Overflow Unit – Location: Massachusetts
~~~~~

Director of Perioperative Services – Location: Massachusetts
~~~~~

Administrative Director of Perioperative Services – Location: Rhode Island
~~~~~